NEW CANE FIELD ON KAUAI

STILL ANOTHER PLANTATION IN PROSPECT.

Lands That Will Certainly be Improved in the Coming Years—Watered by Artesian Wells.

Among the many enterprises that are hanging fire pending the settlement of our political question, is a new sugar plantation on Kauai. It will without doubt be put through in the near future. The proposed site is on the Knudsen ranch, where recent surveys have shown that about 2000 acres of land below the 600 foot level, are adaptable for the cultivation of cane.

Hitherto the lack of water has rendered it impracticable to utilize a great deal of fine agricultural land on the Garden Isle, but the recent successes of the well borers have placed a different aspect on the matter. It is now believed that flowing wells can be struck all over the Island, and that hundreds of acres now lying idle can be brought under cultivation within the next few years. Of course it will take years to bring these new plantations up to a high standard, and should the United States place a duty on sugar it could not be raised there at a profit.

There seems to be no doubt that water can be found on this ranch land. In fact, so confident are the backers of the enterprise that they have already figured on the cost of pumping machinery and mills, and it is understood have placed orders that will be valid when the political condition is settled. Some of the land in question is already leased on short terms to neighboring plantations.

HICKEY DENIED NEW TRIAL.

The Supreme Court, in a decision handed down this morning, denied a new trial to William P. Hickey, the Laupahoehoe luna convicted of manslaughter and sentenced to five years imprisonment at hard labor.

The Supreme Court has overruled the objections filed by the defendants in the case of Kanohi vs. G. H. Katoipahia et al.

A similar decision was handed down in the case of Charlotte Boyd vs. John Gandall. In this case the Supreme Court decides that a judge may preside over the second trial of a case in which the jury in the first trial has been unable to agree. It is held that the inference of bribery in the case of Juror Sam Stone, called to the attention of the Court, could not be considered seriously.

GETTING INTO TRIM.

The tennis players are beginning to practice for the May tournament. The strongest teams will come from the Pacific courts. However, the Valley and the Beretania clubs will put forward their best material. Shanks will play under the colors of the latter.

BOAT CLUBS WILL CO-OPERATE.

An understanding was reached today between the Myrtle and the Heanani boat clubs whereby a dance will be given alternately by the clubs every month.

NEW LEAGUE IS FORMED

THREE TEAMS WILL COMPETE FOR HONORS.

The Stars are Barred Out Now—Clean Many Sport is Advocated—Public Will Get Money's Worth.

A new baseball league for the season of 1898 was organized at a meeting in the Chamber of Commerce hall this noon. H. M. Whitney, Jr., was chosen president, and W. C. Wilder, Jr., secretary and treasurer.

The league will comprise three teams, including the First Regiment, the Honolulu and the Union. Manager J. O. Carter, Jr., of the Star club, announced to the representatives that he could give a decisive answer as to whether his team would enter this season's games within two or three days' time. The other delegates did not care to wait, and upon motion of Manager Coyne of the Regiments' the entries were closed for the ensuing year.

The season will open on April 9 and will continue for twenty-one games. A committee consisting of Manager Coyne of the Regiments', Manager Fred C. Goudie of the Union and Capt. Thompson of the Honolulu, was instructed to hold a conference with the management of the baseball association and negotiate for a fair division of the gate receipts. If this cannot be accomplished the committee was empowered to lease the old Makiki park grounds of the government for the season. A manager of the League will also be chosen, who will arrange for the purchase of bats, balls and suits, and to pay for them out of the gate receipts. An umpire will be chosen who will serve for the season at a stipulated price. His decision shall be made final on all protests unless it is thought wise to select some outsider to determine the protests made.

The delegates attending the meeting were Captain Thompson and Manager Willis for the Honolulu; Manager Carter and Duke McNeel, for the Stars; Manager Goudie and Captain Awaiki, for the Union; Manager Coyne and Captain Gorman for the Regiments'.

SWIPES ARE DEMORALIZING.

Many Brewers in the Toils—Victims Show Fight.

Detective Kapua is doing some splendid work in raiding swipes joints, which have become for too numerous of late. Thus far twenty-two brewers and sellers of the stuff have been dragged to jail, and there are still more on the list. In every joint raided the police find half a dozen or more victims in a beastly state of intoxication, most of them helplessly drunk. In several instances, natives half under the influence have attacked the officers, only to be locked up. Following is a list of the arrests made thus far: Kaula (w.), Kunawai, Liliho street; Puo (k.), Kamakelo, near Smith's bridge; Inuwa (k.), Kamakelo, near Smith's bridge; Akana (k.), Kamakelo, near Smith's bridge; Kapedalo (k.), Kamakelo, near Smith's bridge; Wakanika (w.), Kamakelo, near Smith's bridge; Kali Keauuni (k.), Kamanuwa, near Smith's bridge; Beni (k.), "Cape Horn," near Smith's bridge; Lahelo (w.), "Cape Horn," Manuahi (k.), back of L. THE AUDIENCE LIKED IT.

"The song that touched their hearts" is as old as the hills, almost. The leading man in "The Dazzler" combination, which has just closed a successful engagement, made a big hit every night with his bicycle song. He never failed to bring down the house when he reached the verse telling about the good qualities of the Sterling bicycles. The audiences were all ready to hear a good word said about these wheels, and heartily cheered the singer each night. The song was at least as much of a hit as the Sterling wheels have always been. BILMARTIN AFTER JONES

BELIEVES HE CAN WIN IN A FIVE MILE GO.

Suggests That Pacemakers Enliven the Race—The King-Giles Controversy is Being Heard—Harmony in Sight.

Bilmartin came up into The Star office this noon and authorized the publication of a challenge to Allan Jones, the winner of last night's match race, for a five mile go around Cyclomere track. Bilmartin asks that the race be made lively by the presence of pacemakers.

The management of Cyclomere is anxious to have this race pulled off, and will hang up a purse for the winner. Bilmartin will also cover any side wager that Jones may want to put up. Should Jones accept this latest challenge it is probable that the race will be pulled off next Saturday evening.

Testimony was taken today in the row between Giles and King. The matter will be submitted to the referee and the judges for determination. It is likely that some apologies will be made and the unpleasantness then patched up. The tomahawk will be buried and harmony is sure to reign at Cyclomere.

Successors to Ed Towse as referee and George Paris as judge will be appointed today or tomorrow.

RAINFALL WAS HEAVY.

All Over the Island of Hawaii it has Been "Raining Pitchforks."

Manager C. C. Kennedy of Waiakoa plantation states that during the past month of January, 41.31 inches of rain fell at Waiakoa, height five feet above the sea level. The rainfall in other portions of Hawaii was very remarkable, and is overwhelming evidence of the non-relation of forests to rainfall. Following is the rainfall for the month:

DR. MORI INJURED.

Dr. Mori, the Japanese physician, was thrown from his buggy and quite severely injured on the Palama road yesterday, according to the report of Police Lieutenant Kekai. He blames one of the tramcar bus drivers for the accident. At the time the accident occurred, a Smith's bus, bound toward town, was passing an out bound tramcar, when a tram company bus, drawn by four horses, attempted to swing ahead of Smith's bus. Dr. Mori was in a light buggy, and had a driver. The buggy came down a cross street, and swinging in ahead of the busses, when the tram company bus ran him down. The doctor attempted to jump, but was hurled out on his back. The driver escaped, but the buggy was badly demolished. Lieut. Kekai believes that the doctor was quite severely injured, although he managed to carry himself off the field.

A MEAN JOKE.

Somebody played a mean joke on J. S. Walker yesterday. A number of "For Sale" signs have been nailed on trees and gate posts of Mrs. Vida's place, a little further up the street. During the night a practical joker transferred two of these signs to the trees on Walker's place. All day yesterday Mr. Walker had to explain to inquiring friends that he had no intention of selling his place.

SORRY FOR HIS BROTHER

AHMI FEARS DR. SUN YET SEN'S FATE.

The Revolutionist Leader Certain of a Horrible Death—Every Effort will be Made to Save His Life.

Ahmi, the wealthy merchant and rice planter of Maui, is in the city. He is here attending court and will offer testimony in his own suit against Henry Holmes, Mrs. Alvarez and a number of other property owners on Beretania and Fort streets, for the recovery of valuable property, which he asserts belongs to him.

Ahmi is a brother of Dr. Sun Yet Sen, who has just been placed in the custody of the Chinese authorities by order of Lord Salisbury, the English premier. Although he has received no word as yet from Dr. Sen, still Ahmi is satisfied that the news received by the last steamer is authentic and he is very much exercised over his brother's probable fate.

"I doubt very much if I will ever see him alive again," said the Maui merchant this morning. The high authorities in my country bitterly hate my brother and they will surely torture him to death, if no complications are liable to follow. Of course, I shall endeavor to get communication with Dr. Sen and will offer my services to him. I shall do everything in my power to save his life."

Ahmi further stated that Dr. Sen and himself were born in China and were brought to Honolulu when they were young. Dr. Sen was very studious and attended Iolani, St. Louis and Oahu colleges here. Although Ahmi has not kept very close account of his brother's doings, he knows that he has been quite successful in organizing the Chinese revolutionary party. Ahmi last saw Dr. Sen in Honolulu about two years ago. He has received several letters from him, two since he was captured and imprisoned in the Chinese embassy in London.

LIVELY RUNAWAY.

John Radin's hack got on a rampage last night. The horse tore along King street and the Palama road, curiously enough meeting with no obstruction until he met a tramcar out near the rice fields. The driver rang his bell frantically as the runaway bore down on him, but failing to swerve the hack horse from his course, dropped his lines and disappeared within the car. The mules left to themselves broke away from the car and were soon mired in a rice field near by. The hack just grazed the car leaving three spokes as a memento, and then went on. Two boys on horseback gave chase, and rounded the exhausted animal up against a stone wall in front of Houghtaling's place. Neither hack nor horse were seriously damaged.

A few months ago Mr. Bryan Every of Woodstock, Mich., was badly afflicted with rheumatism. His right leg was swollen the full length, causing him great suffering. He was advised to try Chamberlain's Pain Balm. The first bottle of it helped him considerably and the second bottle effected a cure. For sale by all druggists and dealers.
